

General Conditions of Use for the International School of Milan Website

Welcome to the official website of the International School of Milan. By accessing or using this website, you agree to abide by the following General Conditions of Use (GCU). These conditions are in place to ensure the website remains a positive, safe, and constructive platform for the entire school community. Please read these terms carefully; if you do not agree with them, please refrain from using the website.

---

1. Purpose of the Website

The website serves as a platform where:

- The News Club can share news and updates.
  - Teachers can post announcements, create activities, and manage club pages.
  - Students can access information about CAS activities, clubs, and events.
  - Younger students can request tutoring, and older students can offer tutoring services.
  - Students can anonymously report concerns or issues through a complaints section where others can review the relevance and accuracy of these complaints.
-

2. User Conduct

All users (students, teachers, and staff) are expected to use the website responsibly and respectfully. The following rules apply:

2.1 General Rules

- Users must not post content that is offensive, inappropriate, or disruptive.
- Discussions involving politics, racism, hate speech, discrimination, or any content that is disrespectful or harmful are strictly prohibited.
- The use of profane, obscene, or defamatory language is not allowed.
- Spamming, advertising, or using the website for personal gain is forbidden.
- Repeat offenders of any rules will have their account taken away and may face disciplinary actions.

2.2 News and Announcements

- The News Club may publish articles covering both positive and negative aspects of the school, but all content must be respectful, accurate, and constructive.
  - Articles must not include specific personal information (e.g., names, photographs, or identifiable details of students or staff) without prior written consent.
    - For minors, parental consent is required.
  - Users must not include content that could defame or violate the privacy rights of individuals.
  - Comments on news articles or announcements must be constructive, relevant, and respectful. Harassing, bullying, or attacking others through comments is prohibited.
-

3. Complaints Section

The website includes a feature allowing students to anonymously report issues or concerns regarding the school. The following guidelines apply to this section:

- Purpose: The complaints section is a platform for students to voice concerns that may help improve the school environment. The school administration will review these concerns and may address them publicly.
- Anonymity: Reports can be submitted anonymously, but users are still expected to provide constructive feedback that benefits the school community.
- Public Visibility: Complaints are visible to all users, and students can review the validity of each complaint by voting on its relevance and accuracy.

3.1 Content Restrictions for Complaints

- Complaints must not concern specific students by name or identifying details.
  - Users are prohibited from using the complaints section to target, defame, or criticize specific individuals. If an issue involves a specific student, it should be addressed privately with school staff.
  - Complaints that contain hate speech, discriminatory remarks, or personal attacks will be removed, and repeat offenders may face disciplinary actions.
  - The student council reserves the right to moderate and remove any complaints that do not align with these guidelines or that violate the school's policies.
-

4. Privacy and Permissions

- Users must not upload photographs, videos, or other media featuring students, teachers, or staff without explicit permission.
    - For students under 18, parental consent is required.
  - It is the user's responsibility to ensure that all content shared complies with privacy laws and respects the rights of others.
-

5. Tutoring Requests and Offers

- The tutoring section is intended to connect younger students with older students for academic support.
  - Users offering tutoring must not misuse the platform for unauthorized activities or personal gain.
  - The school is not responsible for the content of tutoring interactions; however, misuse may result in disciplinary action if reported.
-

6. Content Moderation and Removal

- Staff members and the student council reserves the right to review, edit, or remove any content that violates these General Conditions of Use or is deemed inappropriate.
  - Repeated or severe violations may result in restricted access or removal of user privileges on the website.
-

7. Liability

- Users are responsible for any content they post. The school will not be held liable for user-generated content that violates these terms or infringes on the rights of others.
  - The school disclaims any responsibility for the consequences of misuse of the website.
-

8. Changes to the General Conditions of Use

The school reserves the right to modify these General Conditions of Use at any time. Users will be notified of significant changes, and continued use of the website will indicate acceptance of the updated terms.

---

9. Contact Information

For questions or concerns regarding these General Conditions of Use, please contact Jerry at: 13154JW@myise.cloud.